As there is another LPR class scheduled for June 11-14, 2012.. The FBI [Redacted] in efforts to support our program. CJIS [Redacted] has been identified to attend. The FBI [Redacted] will pick up the associated costs such as Lodging and MI&E.. If you could provide the name of the local hotel you use, that would be great.

In addition, Its my understanding that now there is a legal portion in conjunction with the class. If possible, I would like to attend that legal briefing to ensure complete compliance with the class standards.

Your continued support of our LPR program is always greatly appreciated, Thanks again.

The LPR class will be spending most of our time outside today (can't miss us... we'll be in the parking lot). If you want, I can make sure everybody is inside by 3:30. If you come before 3:30, then just grab us in the parking lot and we'll come back to the classroom. Generally the class is at lunch from around 12:00 – 1:00 (give or take 30 min on either side).

Take care,

Gents,

I have critical unfunded needs for TTS. In reviewing TTS credit card balances as of 6/6/2012 TTS still has [REDACTED] balance unspent out of an allocation [REDACTED] at beginning of the FY. I know with the early requisition deadlines of April-May, we utilize the credit cards to [REDACTED] Still, [REDACTED] is a lot of money and we give a bunch of it back to SRU and/or FD at HQ at the end of the FY when it is left unspent each year.

As of 6/6/2012 the two biggest amounts left unspent are
VSU [REDACTED] and ATDU [REDACTED]

Hi [redacted]

The LPR class will be spending most of our time outside today (can't miss us... we'll be in the parking lot). If you want, I can make sure everybody is inside by 3:30. If you come before 3:30, then just grab us in the parking lot and we'll come back to the classroom. Generally the class is at lunch from around 12:00 – 1:00 (give or take 30 min on either side).

Take care,

Gents,

I have critical unfunded needs for TTS. In reviewing TTS credit card balances as of 6/6/2012 TTS still has [REDACTED] balance unspent out of an allocation [REDACTED] at beginning of the FY. I know with the early requisition deadlines of April-May, we utilize the credit cards to [REDACTED] Still, [REDACTED] left is a lot of money and we give a bunch of it back to SRU and/or FD at HQ at the end of the FY when it is left unspent each year.

b7E

As of 6/6/2012 the two biggest amounts left unspent are

VSU [REDACTED] and ATDU [REDACTED]

Due to the impending MPU [REDACTED] directing that the following amounts be transferred to MPU via [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] from ATDU to cover [REDACTED] project.

b6
b7C
b7E

[REDACTED] from VSU to cover [REDACTED]

This transfer still leaves over [REDACTED] on TTS credit cards. Should an urgent operational requirement arise before the end of the FY that VSU or ATDU [REDACTED] can look to cover within the Section.

VSU and ATDU should identify to [redacted] in SRU what credit cards should be de-obligated so the requested amounts can be transferred to MPU. MPU please identify to [redacted]

The LPR class will be spending most of our time outside today (can't miss us... we'll be in the parking lot). If you want, I can make sure everybody is inside by 3:30. If you come before 3:30, then just grab us in the parking lot and we'll come back to the classroom. Generally the class is at lunch from around 12:00 – 1:00 (give or take 30 min on either side).

Take care,

Good Afternoon,

I enjoyed meeting you today. As we mentioned, we recently conducted a survey of our users which included some information relevant to license plate readers. I've attached the summary document of our survey. The second item under overall conclusions on page 2 contains most of the information relevant to LPR. If you have any questions about this or anything public-source related, please do let me know.

Good Afternoon All,

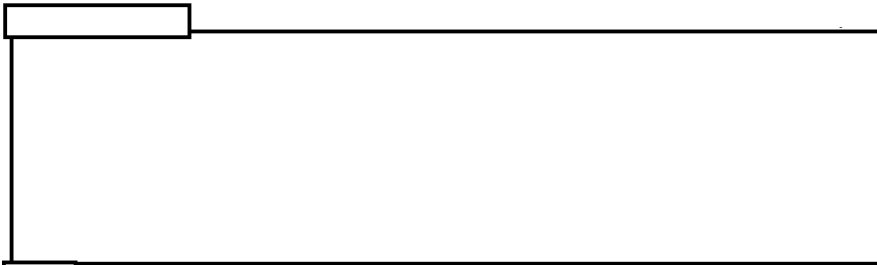

We received formal approval from NIJ to move forward with our STC meeting next month which will be convened on Thursday, September, 13th and Friday, September 14th in [REDACTED] I know that I inquired about everyone's availability in previous correspondence, but I would very much appreciate everyone once again letting me know whether you can or cannot make it. Attached is the travel request form that will need to be completed and submitted to [REDACTED] in order to book flights. If you could CC me on your email to [REDACTED] it would be extremely helpful. If you're one of a number of folks who plan on also attending the Interview Room STC meeting on Tuesday and Wednesday, you'll need to change the dates on the attached form.

If it takes [REDACTED] longer than usual to respond to your submitted flight request, it is likely because he's swamped with similar requests in advance of our annual conference. It's definitely that time of year. I'll be sending out further substantive details over the next week, but in the meantime I'd like to begin to get everyone booked for September.

Thanks again for you participation on this project.

Good Afternoon Everyone,

Thank you for providing me with your availability for August and September. After compiling your responses, it appears that our best window in which to hold the next meeting is Thursday, September 13th and Friday, September 14th. I know that some of you will have conflicts, but this was the best option for the group as a whole.

As we've done previously, I'm going to hold off on making travel arrangements for now until we receive final approval from NIJ. That being said, hopefully we can begin booking flights by mid-to-late July. I'll keep everyone posted. The meeting will take place in [REDACTED] as we've done in the past with a location TBD.

Thanks,

All,

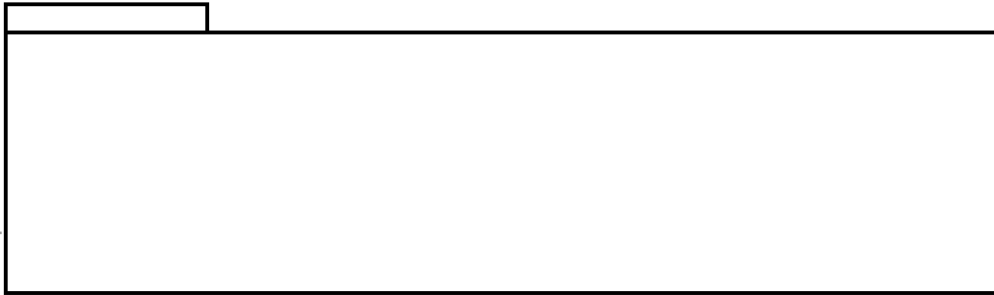

After another successful two-day session here last week in [REDACTED] I'm going to proceed with planning for our next STC meeting. Obviously moving forward it remains crucial to identify dates that work well for the majority of the folks on the committee. Thus, in order to better gauge everyone's availability, I have created the attached spreadsheet for everyone to fill out. You'll see that I've included five weeks (three in August and two in September). If everyone could kindly review the attachment and indicate with X's when you're NOT available at this juncture, the planning process would be extremely easier.

b7E

If you're one of the handful of folks who serve on both of the video standards committees, you'll be receiving two separate emails, but you're obviously okay with only replying to one with your availability.

I'm hoping to get everyone's feedback by the end of next week so that we may move forward with some definitive dates.

Thanks again for all of your contributions, and let me know if you have any questions. [REDACTED] and I will also be working with many of you individually between now and the next meeting in order to address specific sections of the documents, so keep an eye out for further messages from us.
