	GENERAL DISPOSITION AUTHORITIES FOR AUXILIARY OFFICE CASE FILES, 1991-October 15, 1995 Pre-Universal Case File Numbers (UCFNs): Prior to 1991, files opened at FBIHQ (HQ) and in field offices were assigned two or more different file numbers. The Headquarters file number was known as the Bureau File Number. Additional file numbers were assigned depending on the number of Auxiliary Offices (AOs) involved in the investigation. These numbers consisted of a classification and case number in a sequential numbering pattern for each classification within a field office, legal attaché (legat), or HQ. Universal Case File Numbers (UCFNs) and Office of Origin (OO): The Universal Case File Number (UCFN) was implemented so that each office working the same investigation would refer to the investigation through the use of one file number. The office initiating the investigation, or the Office of Origin (OO), generates a unique file number. This number consists of a classification, an OO designator, and a unique case number used to identify the investigation. The classification is an internal code number denoting the type of Federal offense within the FBI's jurisdiction, and the OO is the two character designator signifying the Division initiating the investigation based on the geographical location of the alleged violation. The unique case number is a sequential number generated by the OO. The initiating office is generally the OO, and offices outside the geographical location assisting in the investigation are considered AOs. Regardless of whether the number was pre-UCFN or UCFN, the AO would conduct their investigation and send information/results back to the OO. However, under pre-UCFN, original documentation, such as interview notes, 1As, lab reports, and FD-302s were maintained in the AO's file. In UCFN, communications were prepared in an AO, and the original document was sent to the OO. Internal memoranda were filed in the AO file because they were TO the office FROM the office. Internal AO memos were never sent to the OO because any information that was deemed necessary to the investigation was sent to the OO by airtel or letter.

	GENERAL DISPOSITION AUTHORITIES FOR OFFICE OF ORIGIN CASE FILES, October 16, 1995-Ongoing The Automated Case Support (ACS) system was implemented on October 16, 1995, in all field offices, legats, and at FBIHQ. With the implementation of ACS, all cases are worked out of a single, universal case file. The Office of Origin (OO) opens a case and then sets leads to itself and other divisions, as needed. The divisions receiving the leads are referred to as Lead Offices (LOs), not Auxiliary Offices (AOs) as in the past. The LO works from the same universal case file as the OO. ACS supports the universal serial concept wherein only the creating office serializes a document, providing single source entry of serials. All original serials are maintained in the OO's case file. LOs forward original documents to the OO. (1) Policy Files: Policy and procedural documentation regarding the FBI's administration of investigations conducted under individual violations or classifications. PERMANENT: Offer to NARA in 10 year blocks when 25 years old. (2) Exceptional Case Files: These case files document the FBI's investigation of a significant individual, event or organization; or evidence of a precedent-setting program; or in some other way constitute a landmark case. Representatives of the Archivist of the United States have identified a large number of Exceptional Case Files. In addition, historians, social scientists, and other experts outside the Federal Government have recommended a number of potential Exceptional Case Files. Any case file that meets one (1) or more of the following five (5) general criteria will supplement this list of specific Exceptional Case Files. It is emphasized that imposition of any of the five (5) general criteria should not require a page-by-page review but should be imposed relatively easily and without a great amount of research. Moreover, the general criteria should not be applied in those case file classifications where all case files are already scheduled for PERMANENT retention. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(a) All control files other than "0" files</li> <li>(b) Ten Most Wanted Criminals</li> <li>(c) All cases that have five or more newspaper clippings</li> </ul>

287	CLASSIFICATION 287 COMPUTER INVESTIGATIONS AND THREAT ASSESSMENT CENTER (CITAC) [Obsolete – 1995] (1) "0"-Administrative File DISPOSAL NOT AUTHORIZED (2) All Other Case Files See CLASSIFICATION 288 NOTE: This case file classification was administratively closed in 1995. The only material within this classification is the HQ administrative file ("0") and the HQ policy file ("00"). In view of the lack of volume of material, the disposition for these files is established as "DISPOSAL NOT AUTHORIZED" until further review by NARA. The FBI created no other case files and subsequent violations were opened under Classification 288 (National Infrastructure and Computer Intrusion Program).
