Jesse,

I am writing concerning EPIC v. DHS (Case No. 10-cv-1992).

I can confirm that EPIC does not challenge DHS's assertion of the b(6) exemption as to the records disclosed to EPIC in this case.

I can also confirm that EPIC does not challenge DHS's assertion of the b(4) exemption as to the records for which the agency has identified "copyright" as the sole basis for the b(4) assertion.

-John
