Folks,

As you are likely aware, several of your Principals will be participating in an event in California on Friday with leadership of many of the technology companies to discuss opportunities for collaboration on counterterrorism and countering violent extremism. In addition, we will likely look to publically announce both the CVE-IATF and the Global Engagement Center. [REDACTED]

Mary, Jim, Yuri, Rob, Michelle—

Please find attached updated versions of the agenda and issue papers for tomorrow's tech convening. The changes primarily reflect DOJ's input on the fourth paper and related conversation among Principals this morning. While these are still marked "draft," they're being treated here as near-final versions.

Many thanks.

All the best, Josh
