

MINUTE ORDER: During a teleconference on the record on November 17, 2017, the Court conferred with the parties regarding a briefing schedule for Plaintiff's 7 Motion for a Preliminary Injunction. In his motion, Plaintiff invoked his right, under Local Civil Rule 65.1(d) of the Rules of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, to a hearing "no later than 21 days after" the filing of that motion. Furthermore, under Local Civil Rule 65.1(c), "[t]he opposition [to an application for a preliminary injunction] shall be served and filed within seven days after service of the application for preliminary injunction." Pursuant to Local Civil Rule 65.1(d), a later hearing date is permissible if the Court "makes a finding that a later hearing date will not prejudice the parties." In the interest of efficient resolution of this matter, in light of the intervening holiday, and based on Defendants' representation that the Presidential Advisory Commission on Election Integrity will not meet in December, the Court has accepted the parties' agreement to adjust the compressed briefing timeline otherwise suggested by the rules and finds that the parties will not be prejudiced by doing so. Accordingly, Defendants' opposition shall be due by DECEMBER 1, 2017. Plaintiff's reply, if any, shall be due by DECEMBER 6, 2017. Signed by Judge Colleen Kollar-Kotelly on November 20, 2017.
