The Electronic Privacy Information Center (EPIC) invites applications for the EPIC Law Fellowship. EPIC encourages applications from law students graduating in 2015, recent graduates, and judicial clerks.

About EPIC

EPIC is a leading privacy and civil liberties organizations based in Washington, DC. EPIC works to protect the public interest and to promote the Public Voice in decisions concerning the future of the Internet. EPIC pursues public interest litigation, conducts public education, testifies in Congress, organizes conferences, coordinates grassroots advocacy, and publishes books, reports, and newsletters. EPIC also maintains several well-regarded websites, such as privacy.org, thepublicvoice.org, and privacycoalition.org.

About the Fellowship

The EPIC Law Fellow will fill an integral role in EPIC’s Washington, DC office. The Fellow will work with various EPIC projects in areas such as administrative law, appellate advocacy, consumer privacy, and domestic surveillance.

The EPIC Law Fellowship is a one-year position to begin September 2015.

Experience and Qualifications

- Law Degree from an accredited university or expected before Fall 2015;
- Excellent research and writing skills;
- Interest in civil liberties issues relating to the Internet, particularly free speech, privacy, and democratic governance. Experience in public policy is preferred;
- Energy, enthusiasm, and creativity;
- Ability to work in a dynamic team environment.

Compensation

The EPIC Law Fellow will receive an annual salary of $42,000. EPIC provides all employees with a comprehensive benefits package.

How to Apply
Applicants should prepare a cover letter, resume, unofficial law school transcript, and writing sample. Letters of recommendation are welcome and encouraged, not to exceed more than two. Applications to be submitted via email to fellowship@epic.org with the subject line “EPIC Law Fellowship.” Please direct cover letters to Ginger McCall, EPIC Associate Director. The Application deadline is February 28, 2015. Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis.