IRS FOIA Request HQ FOIA, Stop 211 PO Box 621506 Atlanta, GA 30362-3006 Fax: 877-807-9215

Dear FOIA Officer:

This letter constitutes a request under the Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA"), 5 U.S.C. § 552, and is submitted on behalf of the Electronic Privacy Information Center ("EPIC") to the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS").

EPIC seeks the release of all accepted offers-in-compromise—as well as any tax return information "necessary to permit the inspection of [such] accepted offer[s]-in-compromise" — relating to any past or present tax liability of President Donald J. Trump and the business entities he is associated with. Public disclosure of such records is mandated by both 5 U.S.C. § 552(a) and 26 U.S.C. § 6103(k)(1).

Documents Requested

EPIC seeks the following categories of records for all years, whether such records take the form of a Public Inspection File,<sup>3</sup> an AOIC Masterfile Screen transcript,<sup>4</sup> a TDS transcript,<sup>5</sup> a Form 656,<sup>6</sup> a Form 433,<sup>7</sup> a Form 7249,<sup>8</sup> or any other agency document:

- (1) All accepted offers-in-compromise relating to any past or present tax liability of Donald John Trump, the current President of the United States.
- (2) All other "return information . . . necessary to permit inspection of [the] accepted offer[s]-in-compromise" described in Category 1 of this request. Records responsive to Category 2 include, but are not limited to, "income, excess profits, declared value

- excess profits, capital stock, and estate or gift tax returns for any taxable year," as applicable. 10
- (3) All accepted offers-in-compromise relating to any past or present tax liability of any entity identified in Appendix A of this request.
- (4) All other "return information . . . necessary to permit inspection of [the] accepted offer[s]-in-compromise" described in Category 3 of this request. Records responsive to Category 4 include, but are not limited to, "income, excess profits, declared value excess profits, capital stock, and estate or gift tax returns for any taxable year," as applicable. 12

Per I.R.M. 5.8.8.9, such records may be located in the IRS area office "where [each described] taxpayer resides." However, EPIC seeks all of the above records for all years regardless of where and in what form the IRS maintains them.

Copies of the requested records may be furnished to EPIC in electronic format, either by sending an email to FOIA@epic.org or mailing a disc to the address at the top of this letter.

Background

If the Freedom of Information Act means anything, it means that the American public has the right to know whether records exist in a federal agency which reveal that the President of the United States has financial dealings with a foreign adversary. Yet Donald J. Trump has consistently refused to disclose any personal tax records or the tax records of his businesses, leaving the American public "in the dark" as to his financial entanglements with Russia.

President Trump's failure to release his tax records is unprecedented and goes directly against the long-standing tradition of candidates for the U.S. presidency. <sup>15</sup> He was the first major party presidential candidate in 40 years not to make his returns available for public review. <sup>16</sup> Though he initially promised to release his tax information, President Trump withdrew this commitment after his election. <sup>17</sup>

The contents of the President's tax records are of exceptional interest to Americans, who favor their disclosure by a wide margin. More than 1 million people signed a petition urging the federal government to "[i]mmediately release Donald Trump's full tax returns, with all information needed to verify emoluments clause compliance." According to a ABCNews poll, three-quarters of Americans say the President should release his returns. Still, the White House has refused to make these records available.

The importance of public access to President Trump's tax records has only grown over the past year. Since at least May 2017, President Trump, the President's campaign, and many of the President's closest associates have been under federal investigation for allegedly coordinating with the Russian government to interfere in the 2016 U.S. presidential election.<sup>21</sup> That investigation has produced indictments of two close Trump associates for money laundering and other offenses, while two more associates—including former National Security Advisor Michael Flynn—have pled guilty to making false statements.<sup>22</sup>

Meanwhile, President Trump has issued provably false denials about his financial entanglements with Russia. The President actually stated:

For the record, I have ZERO investments in Russia.<sup>23</sup>

Russia has never tried to use leverage over me. I HAVE NOTHING TO DO WITH RUSSIA—NO DEALS, NO LOANS, NO NOTHING!<sup>24</sup>

However, his own law firm has described numerous financial relationships between the President and Russian organizations.<sup>25</sup> The public urgently requires as much information about President Trump's finances as the IRS can lawfully release.

The IRS, in response to a previous FOIA request and lawsuit brought by EPIC, <sup>26</sup> has sought to evade its responsibility to release President Trump's tax returns pursuant to 26 U.S.C.

§ 6103(k)(3).<sup>27</sup> That case is now before the United States Court of Appeals for the D.C. Circuit.<sup>28</sup> Fortunately, § 6103(k)(3) is not the full extent of the IRS's disclosure obligations. Under 26 U.S.C. § 6103(k)(1), the IRS is unequivocally required to make certain of President Trump's tax records available in response to this FOIA request.<sup>29</sup>

EPIC's Right to the Requested Records

EPIC has a legal right to release of the requested records because their disclosure is mandated by the Internal Revenue Code and the FOIA. Although most tax returns and return information "shall be confidential," <sup>30</sup> 26 U.S.C. § 6103(k)(1) requires the disclosure of accepted offers-in-compromise and certain related return information:

(1) Disclosure of accepted offers-in-compromise

Return information shall be disclosed to members of the general public to the extent necessary to permit inspection of any accepted offer-in-compromise under section 7122 relating to the liability for a tax imposed by this title.<sup>31</sup>

Section 6103(k)(1) is one of several provisions in the Tax Reform Act of 1976 reflecting Congress's judgment that certain "returns or return information should be public as a matter of policy, or that the reasons for the limited disclosures involved outweighed any possible invasion of the taxpayer's privacy which might result from the disclosure." As one tax official wrote of 6103(k)(1): "Presumably, the public policy behind the federal exemption from confidentiality of return information is a Congressional belief that the compromise of tax liabilities is affected with significant public interest, to the extent that all taxpayers are affected by such a compromise."

EPIC has requested records that fit squarely within § 6103(k)(1)'s disclosure mandate. EPIC seeks only "accepted offers-in-compromise" and "return information . . . necessary to permit inspection" of those offers-in-compromise. Because such records are not "exempt[ed] from disclosure" by § 6103 or any other statute  $^{35}$ —indeed, their disclosure is  $\underline{\text{mandatory}}$ —they must be released to EPIC pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(3)(A).

Notably, Congress's 1976 enactment of § 6103(k)(1) postdates both the Freedom of Information Act Amendments of 1974<sup>37</sup> and the Privacy Act of 1974.<sup>38</sup> Thus even if the FOIA or the Privacy Act purported to limit the release of the requested records—which neither statute does—§ 6103(k)(1)'s disclosure requirement would supersede such a limitation.<sup>39</sup>

As the IRS states in its own regulations, <sup>40</sup> public disclosure of accepted offers-in-compromise and related return information is further required by Executive Order 10,386. That order mandates that "income, excess profits, declared value excess profits, capital stock, estate or gift tax returns for any taxable year shall be open to inspection to the extent necessary to permit the inspection of any accepted offer in compromise . . . ."<sup>41</sup>

EPIC is aware that—entirely separate from the IRS's FOIA disclosure obligations—26 C.F.R. § 601.702(d)(8) and I.R.M. 5.8.8.9 require IRS Area Offices to retain physical copies of offer-in-compromise records for one year in order to permit in-person inspection by the public. To be clear: these provisions do not in any way limit the scope of EPIC's request or relieve the IRS of its independent obligation to release responsive records pursuant to the FOIA.

First, EPIC is seeking all responsive agency records, regardless of where and in what form the IRS maintains them. The IRS may not narrow its search to solely those records maintained by Area Offices for in-person inspection. Second, FOIA compels the IRS to make copies of responsive documents "promptly available to" EPIC "in any form or format requested" (here, by electronic copy).<sup>42</sup> The IRS may not lawfully require EPIC to visit Area Offices in order to obtain any of the requested records.<sup>43</sup>

The D.C. Circuit has stated this point plainly, holding that tax records and information must be released pursuant to a FOIA request unless the IRS can validly assert a § 6103 or other exemption:

These two statutes [§ 6103 and FOIA] seem to us entirely harmonious; indeed, they seem to us quite literally made for each other: Section 6103 prohibits the disclosure of certain IRS information (with exceptions for many recipients); and FOIA, which requires all agencies, including the IRS, to provide nonexempt information to the public, establishes the procedures the IRS must follow in asserting the § 6103 (or any other) exemption.<sup>44</sup>

There is no FOIA exemption applicable to the requested records—only a disclosure mandate. The IRS must process EPIC's FOIA request and release copies of responsive records to EPIC.

Additionally, EPIC reminds the IRS of Treasury Regulation § 601.702(c)(14), which strictly prohibits the agency from destroying any record that EPIC has requested: "Under no circumstances shall records be destroyed while they are the subject of a pending request, appeal, or lawsuit under 5 U.S.C. 552." To the extent that the disposal schedule set forth in I.R.M. 5.8.8.9(5) might result in the destruction of a document that EPIC has requested, disposal of that record is forbidden during the pendency of this request and any subsequent lawsuit or appeal.

Finally, EPIC's FOIA request does not fall under Treasury Regulation § 601.702(c)(4)(i)(e) or Treasury Regulation § 601.702(c)(5)(iii), which together require proof of taxpayer consent for some requests of tax records. Disclosure of the records EPIC has requested is clearly not "limited by statute or regulations"; 45 to the contrary, disclosure is mandated by § 6103(k)(1).

Thus, IRS regulations require no proof of consent and pose no bar to the processing of EPIC's request or to the release of the records described.

Request for Expedited Processing

EPIC is entitled to expedited processing under the FOIA.<sup>46</sup> Specifically, expedited processing is justified because this request involves an "urgency to inform the public concerning actual or alleged Federal government activity . . . made by a person primarily engaged in disseminating information."<sup>47</sup>

First, there is an "urgency to inform the public concerning actual or alleged Federal government activity." President Trump's accepted offers-in-compromise and related return information—as well as those of the entities he oversees—are of enormous public interest. They attest to the President's compliance with the Internal Revenue Code and the Emoluments Clause of the U.S. Constitution, his potential conflicts of interest, and his dealings with foreign governments and businesses. Such records would offer the public significant context to understand a vast array of foreign and economic policy decisions that President Trump has made since entering office. Moreover, they would shed light on the IRS's decision(s) to settle tax liabilities with now-President Trump and would allow the public to assess the agency's judgment in doing so.

Further, these records "pertain to a matter of current exigency" well beyond "the public's right to know about government activity generally." It is difficult to imagine a more acute public need for information. As noted, the President and his closest associates are under federal investigation for allegedly coordinating with the Russian government to interfere in the 2016 U.S. presidential election. <sup>50</sup> Yet President Trump has continued to make demonstrably false statements about his financial entanglements with Russia.<sup>51</sup> Release of the requested records is urgently needed to inform the public about the President's culpability in the matter. The public also has an immediate need to know the sitting President's record of satisfying—or failing to satisfy—his full tax liabilities.

Second, EPIC is an organization "primarily engaged in disseminating information." <sup>52</sup> As the court explained in EPIC v. Department of Defense, "EPIC satisfies the definition of 'representative of the news media." <sup>53</sup>

In submitting this detailed statement in support of expedited processing, I certify that this explanation is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.<sup>54</sup>

Request for 'News Media' Fee Status and Fee Waiver

EPIC, which is "organized and operated to publish . . . information about current events or of current interest to the public," is a "representative of the news media" for fee classification purposes. Based on EPIC's status as a "news media" requester, EPIC is entitled to receive the requested records with only duplication fees assessed. 57

Any duplication fees should also be waived as (1) the records "are likely to contribute to the general public's understanding of the agency's operations" and do not consist of "information . . . already available to the general public"; and (2) disclosure "is not primarily in the commercial interest of the requester."<sup>58</sup>

First, "the releasable records are likely to contribute to the general public's understanding of the agency's operations or activities." As noted, President Trump's accepted offers-in-compromise and related return information—as well as those of the entities he oversees—would be enormously informative to the public. Such records would shed light on the IRS's decision(s) to settle tax liabilities with the now-sitting President and would allow the public to assess the agency's judgment in doing so.

Further, the requested records will contribute "significan[tly] . . . to the general public's understanding" of President Trump's financial entanglements and the IRS's interactions with the President in his role as a taxpayer. There is very little information available to the public about the IRS's transactions with President Trump or about the President's past and present tax liabilities. By publishing the requested records on the EPIC website, 61 EPIC will add substantially to the store of public knowledge about the IRS and the chief executive who oversees the agency.

Second, as to the "existence and magnitude of the requester's commercial interest . . . being furthered by the releasable records," EPIC has no commercial interest in the requested records. <sup>62</sup> EPIC is a registered non-profit organization committed to privacy, open government, and civil liberties.<sup>63</sup>

For these reasons, a fee waiver should be granted.
