

U.S. Customs and Border Protection

U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) is taking your photograph while boarding the aircraft to compare your photograph to the the image(s) associated with your passport, other travel documents, or prior border inspections.

If you are a U.S. citizen, CBP deletes your photo within 12 hours of being taken¹. For certain non-U.S. citizens, the photograph will be used as a biometric confirmation of departure from the United States as required by law (e.g., 8 U.S.C. § 1365b).

If you do not wish to have your picture taken, please see a CBP Officer to request alternative procedures for identity verification and/or biometric confirmation of departure from the United States.

¹A file is saved 12 hours or less for continuity of operations.

For more information, please visit our website at www.CBP.gov.

Delta is partnering with CBP to capture facial images in order to verify each traveler's identity and create a record of departure from the United States. Having your picture taken is optional. If you do not want your picture taken, please advise the CBP Officer at the gate. For more information, please visit our website at www.cbp.gov.

Delta Airlines maakt in samenwerking met de U.S. Customs and Border Protection (Amerikaanse dienst Douane en grensbescherming) gezichtsopnamen om de identiteit van elke reiziger te verifiëren en vertrek uit de Verenigde Staten te documenteren. Het nemen van uw foto is optioneel. Als u niet wilt dat er een foto van u wordt gemaakt, informeer dan de ambtenaar van de U.S. Customs and Border Protection bij de gate. Voor meer informatie, bezoek onze website op www.cbp.gov.
