Thanks for the update.

SOO: I'm attaching an updated draft. (b)(4)
(b)(4) I thought we could move forward with the rest of the document while we wait. I asked for a couple of example datasets and workflows that we want this to support to make sure we're solving the right set of problems.

PWS: Updated draft attached.

PCloud ROM: Attaching the ROM we previously sent, which includes Reserved instances.

Let me know if it would be helpful to talk through the drafts or if there are any questions.

Thanks,

(b)(6);

Dear (b)(6) and (b)(6);

At your earliest convenience, please review the attached documents and provide them back to me with your comments and concerns. All changes from earlier versions are marked in Track Changes. I know this year's negotiations have been a long slog, longer than we anticipated, with a lot of back and forth. We're approaching our May 27 deadline, however, so I greatly hope we'll be able to wind this up promptly.

Also, please provide for me the anticipated breakdown of costs for Reserved Pricing of 1 year of AWS GovCloud hosting services and 1 year of PCloud management services. Thank you much.

Best wishes,

Hey (b)(6);(

As per your request, please see the below payment from Intel below (b)(6) has asked for the funding this year with no response yet. They may come back with a similar amount and we will be good but they may come back with a far less amount and then we will have to sit down with them.

Thanks,

If we can get the 9.9 in mid-April that would be great, since it is an exercise of an option. As far as how much intel must contribute towards the pot I will let you know. I think they gave a million towards the 9.9 last year. Is that correct? I want to get the actual number. I want to make sure I let (b)(6) know. (b)(6) (b)(6);(b) and (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) spoke to the guy in charge at Intel but I cannot recall what the final outcome was for their yearly contribution for FALCON. We need to change the amount on the G-514 to $2 million. The item description should read:

(b)(5)

I've attached a proposal and justification document, which describes the urgent and compelling governmental need for this modification and an explanation of pricing; the amended PWS Attachment B: Statement of Outcomes; a cost reasonableness spreadsheet previously shared by Palantir with OAQ; and an adjusted IGCE showing the movement of $2 million in contract funding from CLIN 3001 to CLIN 0001.

Thanks so much for all your help today! Have a great weekend.
