EPIC/19-cv-02906 (DoD19-L-0810)/0047-0050	4	pdf email attachment	Re: HR Requirements for New AI Commission (UNCLASSIFIED)	18-Jan-19	unclass	DoD	(b)(5); (b)(6)	(b)(5): Deliberative Process - part of this intra-agency record contains predecisional, deliberative, attorney-client and attorney work product information and is withheld from release. The email communications between an attorney and his client for legal advice regarding Human Resources requirements is a confidential communication protected by (b)(5). Further the attorney's response to his client is advice in contemplation of an administrative action if the opinion is not followed. Lastly, the back and forth intra-agency communication concerning the reasoning and rationale as to why DoD would act as NSCAI's HR provider is information that if released would jeopardize the open and frank discussions between colleagues and also contribute to public confusion as to DoD's ultimate decision on the HR issue. (b)(6): Personal Privacy - the names, phone numbers, email and physical work addresses are withheld to protect the government employees' privacy interests which if released would be a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy and is not outweighed by the requester's interest in disclosure.
