In this instance, the redacted information is pre-decisional and deliberative memorandum of understanding between the Commission and another Federal agency regarding the detail assignment of a staff member. It is reasonably foreseeable that disclosure of this predecisional and deliberative agency information would chill open and frank discussions by federal government employees and could cause public confusion thereby hamming an interest protected by Exemption 5. (b)(6): The personally identifiable information protected in this document does not contribute to the public's understanding of governmental activities and functions and the release of this information would constitute an invasion of privacy interests. (b)(6): The NSCAI staff member name redacted in the file name of this document does not contribute to the public's understanding of governmental activities and functions and the release of this information would constitute an invasion of privacy interests.
