Dear Mr. Laster:

This letter constitutes an urgent request under the Freedom of Information Act (“FOIA”), 5 U.S.C. § 552, and is submitted on behalf of the Electronic Privacy Information Center (“EPIC”) to the National Archives and Records Administration (“NARA”).

Background

On July 9, 2018, President Trump nominated Judge Brett M. Kavanaugh to replace Justice Kennedy on the Supreme Court.<sup>2</sup>

Since 2006, Judge Kavanaugh has served on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia.<sup>3</sup> Prior to his appointment to the Court, Judge Kavanaugh served in the White House under the George W. Bush administration.<sup>4</sup> From 2001–2003, Judge Kavanaugh served as the Associate Counsel then Senior Associate Counsel and from 2003–2006 he served as Assistant and Staff Secretary to the President.<sup>5</sup> As Staff Secretary, Judge Kavanaugh played a key role in controlling the flow of documents in and out of the Oval Office and circulating documents to senior administration officials for comment. According to Rajesh De, former Staff Secretary to President Obama, the staff secretary “is the last person to review, comment on, or adjudicate differences with respect to material sent to the president, and may need to synthesize or explain differing points of view on issues of significance.”<sup>6</sup>

Many of the post-September 11 surveillance systems that were initiated and implemented occurred during Judge Kavanaugh’s time as Associate Counsel and then Staff Secretary to President George W. Bush. Mass surveillance systems such as the warrantless wiretapping program, Total Information Awareness, airport body scanners,<sup>7</sup> passenger profiling,<sup>8</sup> and the passage of the PATRIOT Act<sup>9</sup> and the REAL ID provisions.<sup>10</sup> These programs sparked widespread public opposition, and many were shut down after they were brought to light.

All of these programs were subject to high-profile public scrutiny, including intense media coverage, and would likely have been reviewed within the White House. For example, in November 2002, the New York Times reported that the Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency was developing a massive surveillance system called “Total Information Awareness,” that would “peek at personal data of Americans.”<sup>11</sup> The program was spearheaded by John

Admiral Poindexter resigned under increasing Congressional scrutiny and, on September 24, 2003, the President signed a budgetary bill that eliminated funding for the project and closed the Pentagon component office that developed the system.<sup>12</sup>

The "warrantless wiretapping" program, which was first revealed by the New York Times during Judge Kavanaugh's tenure as Staff Secretary, was one of the most controversial scandals of the Bush Presidency.<sup>13</sup> The program was first created in November 2001 and was tightly controlled by the White House until 2004, when Department of Justice officials were informed of its existence and called into question the legality of the program.<sup>14</sup> This led to a dramatic encounter between White House and Justice Department officials at the hospital bed of then-Attorney General John Ashcroft in March of 2004.<sup>15</sup> Reporters were prepared to publish an expose of the program in the fall of 2004, but officials working in the Bush White House convinced the New York Times to hold the story for more than 13 months.<sup>16</sup> Some have suggested that the decision impacted the outcome of the 2004 election.<sup>17</sup>

Communications sent or received by White House staff members from the White House e-mail message system are stored in NARA's Electronic Records Archive ("ERA") in the Automated Records Management System ("ARMS") and "processed by staff of the National Archives for release."<sup>18</sup>

Request for Expedition

EPIC is entitled to expedited processing of this request under the FOIA and the NARA's FOIA regulations. 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(E)(v)(II); 36 C.F.R. § 1250.28. Specifically, this request is entitled to expedited processing because, first, there is an "urgent need to inform the public about an actual or alleged Federal Government activity” and, second, because the request is “a matter of widespread . . . interest in which there exist possible questions that affect public confidence in the Government’s integrity.” 36 C.F.R. §§ 1250.28(3)–(4).

First, there is an “urgent need to inform the public about an actual or alleged Federal Government activity” 36 C.F.R. § 1250.28(3). The “actual . . . federal government activity” at issue is Judge Kavanaugh’s participation in the post-September 11 mass surveillance systems during his tenure as the White House Associate Counsel and Senior Counsel, and as Staff Secretary. As Associate Counsel and then Senior Associate Counsel, Judge Kavanaugh provided “legal guidance on administration policy and administrative matters to the President and White House staff.”<sup>19</sup> As Staff Secretary, Judge Kavanaugh acted as “a clearinghouse for nearly all documents intended for the President, and for any paperwork to be disseminated among administration officials.”<sup>20</sup>

The “urgent” need to inform the public about this activity is clear given the significance of the pending confirmation hearing for the Supreme Court. On July 26, 2018, Senate Minority Leader Chuck Schumer (D-NY) wrote a letter to former President George W. Bush to request the complete release of all Judge Kavanaugh’s records during his service in the White House and noted that his Republican colleagues in the Senate refuse to sign a bipartisan document requesting the full release.<sup>21</sup> On July 27, 2018, Senate Judiciary Committee Chairman Chuck Grassley (R-IA) sent a letter to the George W. Bush Presidential Library and Museum to request Judge Kavanaugh’s records when he served as White House counsel and documents related to his nomination to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the D.C. Circuit.<sup>22</sup> The request did not include records from the period where Judge Kavanaugh served as Staff Secretary.

Judge Kavanaugh’s Supreme Court confirmation hearing will likely be scheduled in the coming weeks.

This urgency criterion in granting an expedition applies because EPIC is an organization “primarily engaged in disseminating information to the public.” 36 C.F.R. § 1250.28(3). As the Court explained in EPIC v. DOD, “EPIC satisfies the definition of ‘representative of the news media’” entitling it to preferred fee status under the FOIA. 241 F. Supp. 2d 5, 15 (D.D.C. 2003).

Second, this request is “a matter of widespread . . . interest in which there exist possible questions that affect public confidence in the Government’s integrity.” 36 C.F.R. § 1250.28(4). In 2006, there was strong bipartisan support to request a full and complete record of then Supreme Court nominee Elena Kagan’s service at the White House. During her nomination process, NARA released tens of thousands of pages from Justice Kagan's service under the Clinton Administration and the public, along with the Senate, was able to review her full records and make an informed decision regarding her nomination. The partisan divide over the extent of review of Judge Kavanaugh's paper trail could stall the nomination proceedings and affect public confidence in Senate's ability to impartially and fairly review the record of a nominee for a lifetime appointment to the Supreme Court. A Pew Research survey states that 83% of Americans consider the choice for the next Supreme Court justice is very or somewhat important to them.<sup>23</sup> Senator Patrick Leahy strongly criticized the Senate Judiciary's incomplete records request stating:

Even for the records that Senate Republicans are seeking, they did not request that the administration tell us what specific documents they are withholding and the basis for doing so. This tainted process and half-production are all the more troubling because the last time Judge Kavanaugh testified before the Senate, he appeared to provide a misleading account of his work on torture and detainee policies in the White House. . . . Senate Republicans are hiding relevant documents from the American people and putting party over country. The American people—whose lives will be shaped for a generation by Judge Kavanaugh if he is confirmed—deserve better.<sup>24</sup>

In submitting this request for expedited processing, I certify that this explanation is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief. 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(E)(vi); 36 C.F.R. § 1250.28(c).

Request for "News Media" Fee Status and Fee Waiver

EPIC is a "representative of the news media" for fee classification purposes. EPIC v. DOD, 241 F. Supp. 2d 5 (D.D.C. 2003). Based on EPIC's status as a "news media" requester, EPIC is entitled to receive the requested record with only duplication fees assessed. 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(ii)(II); 36 C.F.R. § 1250.54(b).

Further, any duplication fees should also be waived because (i) disclosure of the requested information is in the public interest because it is likely to contribute to the public understanding of the operations or activities of the government and (ii) disclosure of the information "is not primarily in the commercial interest" of EPIC, the requester. 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(iii); 36 C.F.R. § 1250.56(a). EPIC's request satisfies this standard based on the NARA's considerations for granting a fee waiver. 36 C.F.R. §§ 1250.56(a)(1)–(2).

(1) Disclosure of the requested information is likely to contribute to the public understanding of the operations or activities of the government.

First, disclosure of the requested documents is in the public interest because it “is likely to contribute significantly to public understanding of the operations or activities of the Government.” 36 C.F.R. § 1250.56(a)(1). The NARA components evaluate these six factors to determine whether this requirement is met: (i) the subject of the request “pertain[s] to the operation and activities of the Federal Government”; (ii) disclosure “will reveal meaningful information that the public does not already know about Federal Government activities”; (iii) disclosure will “advance public understanding of the issue”; (iv) the requester’s “expertise or understanding of the requested records as well as [the requester’s] ability and intention to effectively convey information to the public”; (v) the requester’s intent “to disseminate the requested information to a broad spectrum of the public”; and (vi) disclosure “will lead to a significantly greater understanding of the Government by the public.” § 1250.56(b).

On the first factor, the subject of the request self-evidently concerns identifiable “operations or activities of the federal government.” 36 C.F.R. § 1250.56(b)(i). Judge Kavanaugh served as the former White House Counsel and Staff Secretary to President George W. Bush. Records related to his service are maintained and preserved at the George W. Bush Presidential Library and Museum.

On the second factor, disclosure “will reveal meaningful information that the public does not already know about Federal Government activities” because little information has been released about Judge Kavanaugh’s participation in mass surveillance while serving as counsel and staff secretary for President Bush. 36 C.F.R. § 1250.56(b)(ii). The release will be meaningfully informative because the public will be able to gain valuable insight into Judge Kavanaugh’s legal thinking.

On the third factor, disclosure will “advance public understanding of the issue” because little information is known about Judge Kavanaugh’s tenure in the White House, other than highly redacted material released by the George W. Bush Presidential Library and Museum. 36 C.F.R. § 1250.56(b)(iii). Judge Kavanaugh has stated that his time serving as Staff Secretary was “the most interesting and, in many ways, among the most instructive” to his work as a judge.<sup>25</sup> The release of this information will allow the public to understand how his service as Staff Secretary shaped his viewpoints as a legal scholar and provide insight into how he might rule if confirmed to the Supreme Court.

On the fourth factor, as provided in the NARA FOIA regulations, the NARA components will “presum[e] that a representative of the news media satisfies this consideration.” 36 C.F.R. § 1250.56(b)(iv). As previously stated, EPIC is considered a representative of the news media for fee calculation purposes. EPIC v. Dep’t of Defense, 241 F. Supp. 2d 5, 15 (D.D.C. 2003).

On the fifth factor, EPIC intends “to disseminate the requested information to a broad spectrum of the public.” 36 C.F.R. § 1250.56(b)(v). EPIC consistently publishes important documents obtained through the FOIA and through litigation on its robust website.<sup>26</sup> EPIC publishes an award-winning email and online newsletter that always highlights the critical documents obtained through the FOIA.<sup>27</sup> EPIC’s FOIA work has also been featured in numerous national news publications.<sup>28</sup>

Finally, on the sixth factor, disclosure “will lead to a significantly greater understanding of the Government by the public” because again, there is little information publicly available about Judge Kavanaugh’s role as Counsel and Staff Secretary during the period in which the Bush Administration oversaw mass surveillance systems of significant concern to the public. 36 C.F.R. § 1250.56(b)(vi).

(2) Disclosure of the information is not primarily in the commercial interest of the requester

Second, disclosure of the information “is not primarily in [EPIC’s] commercial interest.” 36 C.F.R. § 1250.56(a)(2). EPIC is a registered non-profit organization committed to privacy, open government, and civil liberties.<sup>29</sup> EPIC has no commercial interest in the requested records and has established that there is significant public interest in the requested records.

For these reasons, a full fee waiver should be granted for EPIC’s request.

The "warrantless wiretapping" program, which was first revealed by the New York Times during Judge Kavanaugh's tenure as Staff Secretary, was one of the most controversial scandals of the Bush Presidency.<sup>13</sup> The program was first created in November 2001 and was tightly controlled by the White House until 2004, when Department of Justice officials were informed of its existence and called into question the legality of the program.<sup>14</sup> This led to a dramatic encounter between White House and Justice Department officials at the hospital bed of then-Attorney General John Ashcroft in March of 2004.<sup>15</sup> Reporters were prepared to publish an expose of the program in the fall of 2004, but officials working in the Bush White House convinced the New York Times to hold the story for more than 13 months.<sup>16</sup> Some have suggested that the decision impacted the outcome of the 2004 election.<sup>17</sup>

Materials of the Office of the Staff Secretary are under custody of NARA, which houses these records in the respective presidential library. The George W. Bush Presidential Library and Museum maintains records related to Judge Kavanaugh's service during the George W. Bush Administration. In particular, the Library holds textual records from the White House Counsel's Office and the White House Office of the Staff Secretary.<sup>18</sup>

EPIC is entitled to expedited processing of this request under the FOIA and the NARA's FOIA regulations. 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(E)(v)(II); 36 C.F.R. § 1250.28. Specifically, this request is entitled to expedited processing because, first, there is an "urgent need to inform the public about an actual or alleged Federal Government activity" and, second, because the request is "a matter of widespread . . . interest in which there exist possible questions that affect public confidence in the Government's integrity." 36 C.F.R. §§ 1250.28(3)–(4).

First, there is an "urgent need to inform the public about an actual or alleged Federal Government activity" 36 C.F.R. § 1250.28(3). The "actual . . . federal government activity" at issue is Judge Kavanaugh's participation in the post-September 11 mass surveillance systems during his tenure as the White House Associate Counsel and Senior Counsel, and as Staff Secretary. As Associate Counsel and then Senior Associate Counsel, Judge Kavanaugh provided "legal guidance on administration policy and administrative matters to the President and White House staff."<sup>19</sup> As Staff Secretary, Judge Kavanaugh acted as "a clearinghouse for nearly all documents intended for the President, and for any paperwork to be disseminated among administration officials."<sup>20</sup>

The "urgent" need to inform the public about this activity is clear given the significance of the pending confirmation hearing for the Supreme Court. On July 26, 2018, Senate Minority Leader Chuck Schumer (D-NY) wrote a letter to former President George W. Bush to request the complete release of all Judge Kavanaugh's records during his service in the White House and noted that his Republican colleagues in the Senate refuse to sign a bipartisan document requesting the full release.<sup>21</sup> On July 27, 2018, Senate Judiciary Committee Chairman Chuck Grassley (R-IA) sent a letter to the George W. Bush Presidential Library and Museum to request Judge Kavanaugh's records when he served as White House counsel and documents related to his nomination to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the D.C. Circuit.<sup>22</sup> The request did not include records from the period where Judge Kavanaugh served as Staff Secretary.

Judge Kavanaugh's Supreme Court confirmation hearing will likely be scheduled in the coming weeks.

This urgency criterion in granting an expedition applies because EPIC is an organization "primarily engaged in disseminating information to the public." 36 C.F.R. § 1250.28(3). As the Court explained in EPIC v. DOD, "EPIC satisfies the definition of 'representative of the news media'" entitling it to preferred fee status under the FOIA. 241 F. Supp. 2d 5, 15 (D.D.C. 2003).

Second, this request is “a matter of widespread . . . interest in which there exist possible questions that affect public confidence in the Government’s integrity.” 36 C.F.R. § 1250.28(4). In 2006, there was strong bipartisan support to request a full and complete record of then Supreme Court nominee Elena Kagan’s service at the White House. During her nomination process, NARA released tens of thousands of pages from Justice Kagan’s service under the Clinton Administration and the public, along with the Senate, was able to review her full records and make an informed decision regarding her nomination. The partisan divide over the extent of review of Judge Kavanaugh’s paper trail could stall the nomination proceedings and affect public confidence in Senate’s ability to impartially and fairly review the record of a nominee for a lifetime appointment to the Supreme Court. A Pew Research survey states that 83% of Americans consider the choice for the next Supreme Court justice is very or somewhat important to them.<sup>23</sup> Senator Patrick Leahy strongly criticized the Senate Judiciary’s incomplete records request stating:

Even for the records that Senate Republicans are seeking, they did not request that the administration tell us what specific documents they are withholding and the basis for doing so. This tainted process and half-production are all the more troubling because the last time Judge Kavanaugh testified before the Senate, he appeared to provide a misleading account of his work on torture and detainee policies in the White House. . . . Senate Republicans are hiding relevant documents from the American people and putting party over country. The American people—whose lives will be shaped for a generation by Judge Kavanaugh if he is confirmed—deserve better.<sup>24</sup>

In submitting this request for expedited processing, I certify that this explanation is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief. 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(E)(vi); 36 C.F.R. § 1250.28(c).

Request for “News Media” Fee Status and Fee Waiver

EPIC is a “representative of the news media” for fee classification purposes. EPIC v. DOD, 241 F. Supp. 2d 5 (D.D.C. 2003). Based on EPIC’s status as a “news media” requester, EPIC is entitled to receive the requested record with only duplication fees assessed. 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(ii)(II); 36 C.F.R. § 1250.54(b).

Further, any duplication fees should also be waived because (i) disclosure of the requested information is in the public interest because it is likely to contribute to the public understanding of the operations or activities of the government and (ii) disclosure of the information “is not primarily in the commercial interest” of EPIC, the requester. 5 U.S.C. §

<sup>24</sup> Press Release, Patrick Leahy, Senator for Vermont, Leahy Comment on the Senate Judiciary Committee’s Incomplete Records Request for Judge Brett Kavanaugh (July 27, 2018), <https://www.leahy.senate.gov/press/072718kavanaughrecordsrequest>.

552(a)(4)(A)(iii); 36 C.F.R. § 1250.56(a). EPIC’s request satisfies this standard based on the NARA’s considerations for granting a fee waiver. 36 C.F.R. §§ 1250.56(a)(1)–(2).

(1) Disclosure of the requested information is likely to contribute to the public understanding of the operations or activities of the government.

First, disclosure of the requested documents is in the public interest because it “is likely to contribute significantly to public understanding of the operations or activities of the Government.” 36 C.F.R. § 1250.56(a)(1). The NARA components evaluate these six factors to determine whether this requirement is met: (i) the subject of the request “pertain[s] to the operation and activities of the Federal Government”; (ii) disclosure “will reveal meaningful information that the public does not already know about Federal Government activities”; (iii) disclosure will “advance public understanding of the issue”; (iv) the requester’s “expertise or understanding of the requested records as well as [the requester’s] ability and intention to effectively convey information to the public”; (v) the requester’s intent “to disseminate the requested information to a broad spectrum of the public”; and (vi) disclosure “will lead to a significantly greater understanding of the Government by the public.” § 1250.56(b).

On the first factor, the subject of the request self-evidently concerns identifiable “operations or activities of the federal government.” 36 C.F.R. § 1250.56(b)(i). Judge Kavanaugh served as the former White House Counsel and Staff Secretary to President George W. Bush. Records related to his service are maintained and preserved at the George W. Bush Presidential Library and Museum.

On the second factor, disclosure “will reveal meaningful information that the public does not already know about Federal Government activities” because little information has been released about Judge Kavanaugh’s participation in mass surveillance while serving as counsel and staff secretary for President Bush. 36 C.F.R. § 1250.56(b)(ii). The release will be meaningfully informative because the public will be able to gain valuable insight into Judge Kavanaugh’s legal thinking.

On the third factor, disclosure will “advance public understanding of the issue” because little information is known about Judge Kavanaugh’s tenure in the White House, other than highly redacted material released by the George W. Bush Presidential Library and Museum. 36 C.F.R. § 1250.56(b)(iii). Judge Kavanaugh has stated that his time serving as Staff Secretary was “the most interesting and, in many ways, among the most instructive” to his work as a judge.<sup>25</sup> The release of this information will allow the public to understand how his service as Staff Secretary shaped his viewpoints as a legal scholar and provide insight into how he might rule if confirmed to the Supreme Court.

On the fourth factor, as provided in the NARA FOIA regulations, the NARA components will “presum[e] that a representative of the news media satisfies this consideration.” 36 C.F.R. §

1250.56(b)(iv). As previously stated, EPIC is considered a representative of the news media for fee calculation purposes. EPIC v. Dep't of Defense, 241 F. Supp. 2d 5, 15 (D.D.C. 2003).

On the fifth factor, EPIC intends “to disseminate the requested information to a broad spectrum of the public.” 36 C.F.R. § 1250.56(b)(v). EPIC consistently publishes important documents obtained through the FOIA and through litigation on its robust website.<sup>26</sup> EPIC publishes an award-winning email and online newsletter that always highlights the critical documents obtained through the FOIA.<sup>27</sup> EPIC’s FOIA work has also been featured in numerous national news publications.<sup>28</sup>

Finally, on the sixth factor, disclosure “will lead to a significantly greater understanding of the Government by the public” because again, there is little information publicly available about Judge Kavanaugh’s role as Counsel and Staff Secretary during the period in which the Bush Administration oversaw mass surveillance systems of significant concern to the public. 36 C.F.R. § 1250.56(b)(vi).

(2) Disclosure of the information is not primarily in the commercial interest of the requester

Second, disclosure of the information “is not primarily in [EPIC’s] commercial interest.” 36 C.F.R. § 1250.56(a)(2). EPIC is a registered non-profit organization committed to privacy, open government, and civil liberties.<sup>29</sup> EPIC has no commercial interest in the requested records and has established that there is significant public interest in the requested records.

For these reasons, a full fee waiver should be granted for EPIC’s request.

Conclusion

Thank you for your consideration of this request. I anticipate your determination on our request within ten calendar days. 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(E)(ii)(I); 36 C.F.R. § 1250.28(d). For questions regarding this request contact Enid Zhou at 202-483-1140 x104 or Zhou@epic.org, cc: FOIA@epic.org.

Dear Ms. Zhou:

This is in response to your August 1, 2018 request for access under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) (5 U.S.C. § 552), for seven categories of mainly electronic records related to Brett Kavanaugh, for which you have requested expedited processing. Your request was received by the George W. Bush Library on that date, and we have assigned this request tracking number 2018-0258-F.

With respect to your expedition request, the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) has promulgated regulations providing for expedited processing of requests if the requester demonstrates a compelling need (as defined in statute) or in any case the agency deems appropriate under its regulations. NARA's regulations are published at 36 C.F.R. § 1250.28. The requester must demonstrate that the records sought are necessary for one of the following reasons:

1. A reasonable expectation of an imminent threat to an individual's life or physical safety;
2. A reasonable expectation of an imminent loss of a substantial due process right;
3. An urgent need to inform the public about an actual or alleged Federal Government activity (this criterion applies only to those requests made by a person primarily engaged in disseminating information to the public); or
4. A matter of widespread and exceptional media interest in which there exist possible questions that affect public confidence in the Government's integrity.

Given that you or your organization is primarily engaged in disseminating information to the public and that NARA agrees that there is an urgent need to inform the public about an actual or alleged Federal government activity, we consider your request for records related to Judge Kavanaugh's service in the George W. Bush Administration to meet the requirements for expedited processing.

If you have any questions regarding the status of your FOIA request, please contact me directly at 214-346-1557. If you have any questions or concerns about NARA's handling of this expedited request, please feel free to contact NARA's FOIA Officer Joe Scanlon at (301) 837-0583.

If you consider this response to be a denial of your FOIA request, you may appeal by writing to the Deputy Archivist of the United States, (ATTN: FOIA Appeal Staff), Room 4200, National Archives and Records Administration, 8601 Adelphi Road, College Park, Maryland 20740-6001. You should explain why you believe this response does not meet the requirements of the FOIA. Both the letter and the envelope should be clearly marked "FOIA Appeal." To be considered timely, your appeal must be postmarked or electronically submitted within 90 calendar days from the date of this letter.

If you would like to discuss our response before filing an appeal to attempt to resolve your dispute without going through the appeals process, you may contact our FOIA Public Liaison John Laster for assistance at: Presidential Materials Division, National Archives and Records Administration, 700 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Room G-7,

If you are unable to resolve your FOIA dispute through our FOIA Public Liaison, the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS), the Federal FOIA Ombudsman's office, offers mediation services to help resolve disputes between FOIA requesters and Federal agencies. The contact information for OGIS is: Office of Government Information Services, National Archives and Records Administration, 8601 Adelphi Road – OGIS, College Park, MD 20740-6001; email at ogis@nara.gov; telephone at 202-741-5770; toll free at 1-877-684-6448; or facsimile at 202-741-5769.

Letter from President George W. Bush to Hon. David S. Ferriero, Archivist of the United States
(Nov. 15, 2010) (“Bush Letter to Archivist”)

GEORGE W. BUSH

November 15, 2010

The Honorable David S. Ferriero
Archivist of the United States
8601 Adelphi Road
College Park, Maryland 20740

Dear Mr. Ferriero:

On July 31, 2002, I wrote to Archivist of the United States John Carlin, in accordance with the Presidential Records Act (PRA), 44 U.S.C. 2201-2207, specifying that access should be restricted with respect to all six categories of records set forth in section 2204(a) of the PRA for twelve years after the termination of my service as President of the United States.

In order to provide guidance to the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) staff in processing the records of my Administration, I now wish to ease for review and processing purposes the restriction criteria for records under 44 U.S.C. 2204(a)(2) "relating to appointments to Federal office," and 2204(a)(5), "confidential communications requesting or submitting advice, between the President and his advisors, or between such advisors" subject to the limitations below. With respect to easing the restriction in section 2204(a)(2), relating to appointment to federal office, information should generally be withheld only if it:

- 1) Contains clearly confidential personal information, such as social security numbers, medical history, private salary, negative, derogatory, or other information that would require it to be restricted under section 2204(a)(6) of the PRA; or
- 2) Would be restricted under section 2204(a)(5), as in accordance with the guidance provided in this letter.

In implementing this guidance, NARA staff should consult with my designated representatives on any questions that arise with respect to individual records or particular record categories under section 2204(a)(2).

With respect to easing the restriction in section 2204(a)(5), I generally would like to waive this restriction for records containing the more routine confidential communications during my Administration. The categories of advisory information for which I hereby waive the restriction in section 2204(a)(5) because these are generally of a routine advisory nature are:

- 1) Scheduling files, including daily schedules, drafts, and, routine background materials relating to schedules;
- 2) Background materials, drafts, and other preparatory materials regarding Presidential proclamations, declarations, special messages, and executive orders;
- 3) Draft press releases;
- 4) Talking points, fact sheets, and other similar communications regarding final policy decisions including drafts and background materials;
- 5) Routine White House staffing memoranda and comments;
- 6) Memoranda and reports provided to the President and his staff, including drafts, which are purely informational or factual in content, including position papers, reports, and studies that examine an issue;
- 7) Requests and referrals from White House staff to other staff or agency officials seeking guidance and input in the preparation of routine responses to inquiries and the information received by White House staff;
- 8) Routine memoranda and recommendations analyzing and/or making recommendations regarding Administration positions on legislation or recommending Presidential approval or disapproval of legislation and congressional resolutions; and
- 9) Speech related drafts that only contain minor grammatical or routine clerical changes that do not make any substantive changes in the meaning of the final speech.

To the extent questions arise regarding these categories or whether particular information is of a "routine" nature, the NARA staff should consult with my designated representatives.

Separate and apart from the foregoing categories of routine advisory information, I also wish to consider whether to ease restrictions in section 2204(a)(5) with respect to certain other categories of records containing confidential advisory information. Toward that end, I ask the NARA staff to consult and seek guidance from my designated representatives to determine whether to ease the restriction criteria for records containing information in the following more substantive advisory categories:

- A. Confidential communications regarding policy or political matter that is contained in a Presidential record as defined in section 2201 of the PRA;

- B. Confidential communications on a national security or foreign policy topic;
- C. Substantive policy communications directly to or from the President, unless routine in nature;
- D. Communications directly between the President and the Vice President, unless routine in nature;
- E. Communications directly between the President and the First Lady, and their families, unless routine in nature;
- F. Communications directly to or from a former President, Vice President, or their families, unless routine in nature.

In implementing this guidance with respect to section 2204(a)(5), I further request that the NARA staff pay particular attention to, and appropriately consult with, my designated representatives regarding confidential communication, including electronic communications, containing substantive advice or recommendations involving White House staff serving as Assistants to the President.

My designated representatives and I look forward to working with you and your staff, particularly at the George W. Bush Presidential Library, to allow for the greatest public access to the records of my Administration, while continuing to protect sensitive information in accordance with the PRA.

I hope this letter clarifies my intent at this time and provides helpful guidance for NARA staff processing the records of my Administration.

Sincerely,

George W. Bush
