DECLARATION OF DEBORAH C. PEEL

I, Deborah C. Peel, declare as follows:

1. My name is Deborah C. Peel, MD. I am over 18 years old. The information in this declaration is based on my personal knowledge.
2. I am a resident of Austin, Texas.
3. I am the Founder and President of Privacy Rights (PPR), with 12,000 e-members. PPR is the world's leading advocate for the broad universal human and civil right to privacy, focused on the most sensitive personal data, information about our minds and bodies.
4. EPIC is a non-profit corporation located in Washington, D.C. EPIC is a public interest research center, which was established in 1994 to focus public attention on emerging civil liberties issues and to protect privacy, the First Amendment, and other constitutional values. EPIC pursues a wide range of activities, including public education, litigation, and advocacy. EPIC has a particular interest in preserving privacy safeguards established by Congress.
5. I am currently a Member of the Electronic Privacy Information Center (EPIC) Advisory Board. I consider myself a Member of EPIC.

6. I became a Member of EPIC because I am concerned about protecting privacy, freedom of expression, and democratic values in the information age. As a privacy expert, EPIC's work on these issues is of special importance to me.
7. I am currently a Member of the EPIC Advisory Board and Past Member of EPIC's Board of Directors (7 years). I've been deeply involved with EPIC since 2006.
8. I have participated in EPIC's substantive work by signing on to amicus briefs filed by EPIC, assisting in EPIC's advocacy/litigation on matters of health privacy and broad human and civil rights efforts, speaking at EPIC conferences, and contributing to EPIC publications and books.
9. I routinely participate in the Advisory Board's annual meeting and the annual review process of EPIC's program activities. I was also a Board Member for 7 years.
10. I finance EPIC's activities through regular monetary contributions.
11. I depend on EPIC's work to protect my privacy rights and my freedom of expression.
12. I am currently registered to vote in Texas.
13. I do not consent to the collection of my personal data by the "Presidential Advisory Commission on Election Integrity."

14. The disclosure of my personal information—including my name, address, date of birth, political party, social security number, voter history, active/inactive or cancelled status, felony convictions, other voter registrations, and military status or overseas information—would cause me immediate and irreparable harm.

I declare under penalty of perjury that, to the best of my knowledge, the foregoing is true and correct.
