DECLARATION OF HELEN NISSENBAUM

I, Helen Nissenbaum, declare as follows:

1. My name is Helen Nissenbaum. I am over 18 years old. The information in this declaration is based on my personal knowledge.
2. I am a resident of Princeton, New Jersey.
3. I am Professor of Media, Culture and Communication, and Computer Science, at New York University and Senior Faculty Fellow of the Information Law Institute.
4. EPIC is a non-profit corporation located in Washington, D.C. EPIC is a public interest research center, which was established in 1994 to focus public attention on emerging civil liberties issues and to protect privacy, the First Amendment, and other constitutional values. EPIC pursues a wide range of activities, including public education, litigation, and advocacy. EPIC has a particular interest in preserving privacy safeguards established by Congress.
5. I am a Member of the Electronic Privacy Information Center (EPIC) Advisory Board. I am also a member of EPIC's Board of Directors. I consider myself a Member of EPIC.

6. I became a Member of EPIC because I am concerned about protecting privacy, freedom of expression, and democratic values in the information age. As a professor and expert in the social, ethical, and political implications of information technology and digital media, EPIC's work on these issues is of special importance to me.
7. As a Director of the EPIC Board, I participate in electing EPIC's leadership, as well as other members of the Advisory Board and the Board of Directors.
8. I participate in EPIC's substantive work by signing on to amicus briefs filed by EPIC, participate in EPIC meetings and conferences, and contribute to EPIC publications.
9. I routinely participate in the Advisory Board's annual meeting and the annual review process of EPIC's program activities. I also participate in the EPIC Board of Directors' quarterly meetings.
10. I finance EPIC's activities through regular monetary contributions.
11. I depend on EPIC's work to protect my privacy rights and my freedom of expression.
12. I am currently registered to vote in New Jersey.
13. I do not consent to the collection of my personal data by the "Presidential Advisory Commission on Election Integrity."

14. The disclosure of my personal information—including my name, address, date of birth, political party, social security number, voter history, active/inactive or cancelled status, felony convictions, other voter registrations, and military status or overseas information—would cause me immediate and irreparable harm.

I declare under penalty of perjury that, to the best of my knowledge, the foregoing is true and correct.
